Brief Synopsis

Sex Offender Registration Requirements

Effective May 9, 2005: Offenders convicted of felony sex crimes and certain misdemeanors, or those who have been acquitted by reason of insanity or found unfit to proceed on charges of sexual assault, are required to register. Offenders convicted or acquitted of charges under comparable statutes outside of Hawaii are required to register within 3 working days of arrival in Hawaii if the stay is for more than 10 days, or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year. Offenders must report in person to the county police station for photographs every 5 years. Offenders will be mailed a nonforwardable verification form every 90 days to the offender's last reported address, and must be signed and returned by the offender within 10 days of receipt. Public access to certain information is authorized through Internet access and on-site public access. Offenders wishing to be removed from public access may do so through a civil proceeding after certain minimum terms have expired (10 to 40 years), depending on the classification of the charge. The court may allow termination of public access only if the offender has had no new convictions for similar offenses, the offender is unlikely to commit a similar offense, and access to the information will not assist in protecting the public.
